Welcome to Housing and Residence Life at the University of Florida. We hope that the coming year in your new home will be exciting, challenging, and rewarding. Housing staff members strive to provide a supportive and inclusive living environment that encourages students to succeed in the classroom and grow as individuals.

This handbook is designed to give an overview of the University of Florida Housing and Residence Life Community Standards. These policies have been established in the best interest of the residential community at large in accordance with other university regulations, local, state, and federal laws.

For more information, call the Office of Conduct and Community Standards at 352-846-4848 or send questions via email to HousingConduct@ufsa.ufl.edu.
RESIDENCE HALL STAFF

RESEIDENT ASSISTANT (RA)
The RA is one of the first individuals residents will meet when they arrive on campus. RAs are students who live on the floor and are specially trained to support residents, guide roommates, and floor-mates to learn more about the university, each other, and themselves. Residents can approach their RA with questions, or concerns regarding the campus, the residence hall, or academic/personal matters. Since the RA is a full-time student, you may occasionally find that they are not always available. Should an emergency arise, there is always a Graduate Assistant (GA) or professional staff on-call just a phone call away.

PEER MEDIATOR (PM)
A Peer Mediator serves an important role that helps our residents healthily face, discuss, and work through conflict. While guiding a mediation, Peer Mediators assist with communication, connection, and provide tools to help our residents resolve various roommate and interpersonal conflicts.

AREA OFFICE STAFF
The Area Office staff in your residential area and are there to provide information, answer student questions, provide appropriate room and building key access, assist with packages received, or help with resources in the building. If you need to contact an RA, GA, professional staff, area government official, custodial or maintenance staff member, this team can help you.

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT ASSISTANT FOR RESIDENCE LIFE AND EDUCATION
The Administrative Support Assistant for Residence Life and Education is the initial point of contact for support/assistance, this includes assistance animals and domestic partner policy and procedures.

GRADUATE ASSISTANT (GA)
The Graduate Assistant is a graduate student who, similar to an RA, lives in the residence hall. They are responsible for supervising RAs, advising the area government and/or council, initiating and implementing ongoing training and staff development activities, serving as a student conduct administrator, responding to emergency and crises, and serving in an on-call capacity.

RESIDENCE HALL DIRECTOR (RHD)
The Residence Hall Director is a full-time live-in Housing staff member who is responsible for supervising staff, advising the area government and/or council, serving as a student conduct administrator, and overseeing programming efforts in the residential area.

AREA COORDINATOR (AC)
The Area Coordinator is a full-time live in Housing staff member who has administrative responsibility for a residential area. The AC supervises residential area staff which includes Residence Directors, Graduate Assistants and Resident Assistants. The AC is also responsible for advising the area government and/or council, serving as a student conduct administrator, and overseeing programming efforts in the residential area.

ASSOCIATE DIRECTOR OF HOUSING FOR RESIDENCE LIFE & EDUCATION

ADMINISTRATIVE SUPPORT ASSISTANT FOR STUDENT LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT
The Administrative Support Assistant is located in the SLE Office and supports the team within Student Learning and Engagement. Ensuring all team members have the resources and tools they need to provide an inclusive community.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS (GA) IN STUDENT LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT
These Graduate Assistants (GA) roles focus on community engagement through unique lenses: guiding leadership initiatives through co-advising IRHA/NRHH organizations. Second, supporting for our living learning communities using the Residential Experience and Learning Model (REaLM).

COORDINATORS IN STUDENT LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT
Our two specialized experts work to support the residential student experience in unique ways. The Coordinators in SLE lead and support the entire recruitment and training lifecycle of our live-in resident assistant and graduate assistant staff. SLE Coordinators also focus on leveraging campus resource experts to support our Living Learning Communities that provide exclusively tailored opportunities for students to connect and engage on specific topics. Additionally, the coordinators support the implementation of the residential curriculum (REaLM) throughout campus housing.

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR FOR STUDENT LEARNING AND ENGAGEMENT
The Assistant Director for Student Learning and Engagement provides leadership and direction for the Student Learning and Engagement team. The Assistant Director also advises one of UF’s largest student organizations, Inter-Residence Hall Association (IRHA) and National Residence Hall Honorary (NRHH) while providing support to the Area Governments in each residential area. This position infuses creativity, fun, advocacy, and growth into the residential experience.
Housing staff members are expected to report any event that occurs in the university housing communities. An incident report is a written account of an event or situation by the person who has the earliest and most direct involvement with the incident. Charges of the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code and/or Community Standards violations originating from an incident report are considered alleged, pending completion of the student conduct process. Any member of the housing community and university community can report behavior that is inconsistent with the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code and/or Community Standards. If the alleged misconduct occurs in or around a residence hall, or apartment complex, complaints should be brought to a Housing and Residence Life staff member.

All student conduct procedures are designed to minimize disruption to the housing community. When an incident takes place, the following conduct protocol occurs until the case is concluded with the final decision.

If a formal complaint is lodged against a student, usually through an incident report, a Student Conduct Administrator is assigned to consider charges against the student. A Student Conduct Administrator will be assigned according to the severity of the situation, previous conduct record, and the residence community where the violation occurred. The Student Conduct Administrator will be a Housing and Residence Life staff member. In some situations, a case may be handled by the Office of Student Conduct and Conflict Resolution. Please refer to the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code for more information including the student conduct process and student rights - regulations.ufl.edu.

Housing and Residence Life strives to create a positive learning environment where residents treat one another with respect and conduct themselves responsibly, consistent with the Community Standards. To promote this environment, Housing and Residence Life will administer an equitable and judicious conduct process grounded in education, ethical decision making and community responsibility.

NOTE: In certain circumstances, a student may be removed from housing before a student conduct meeting has been held or following a hearing where removal was imposed and an appeal is pending. An interim removal is imposed to ensure the health, safety, or well-being of members of the residence hall/apartment community or to preserve property.
The following standards have been developed to create a productive and safe living environment in the residence halls. In accepting their room assignment, a resident agrees to abide by these standards. The Community Standards are applicable in all Housing and Residence Life properties which includes but is not limited to residence hall/apartment buildings, commons, and inside and outside common spaces. On-campus residents includes those who live in residence halls/apartments operated by Housing and Residence Life at the University of Florida. On-campus residents do NOT include any fraternity, sorority or organizational housing that is not operated by Housing and Residence Life at the University of Florida.

All residential students and guests are responsible to abide by Housing and Residence Life Community Standards and the University of Florida Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code located at regulations.ufl.edu. Housing and Residence Life has the sole discretion to decide what items/products are permissible. Any violation of these Community Standards or the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code may be subject to the student conduct process, where applicable, and termination of your housing contract without refund.

U.01. NOISE

It is every resident’s responsibility to their community to maintain an atmosphere that is conducive to sleep and academic success in the residence halls and apartments. In correlation, each resident and guest is responsible for keeping noise levels to a minimum at all times inside the residence halls and apartments. Noise levels should be low enough so as not to substantially disturb others.

Courtesy hours are in effect at all times; 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, and 365 days a year.

Noise coming from a resident’s room, lounge, apartment, pod, or bathroom must not be audible within the rooms of other residents or within another floor/section/house or building. Residents and their guests must also keep noise in the hallways to a minimum. Additionally, noise originating anywhere on one floor/section/house should not be audible within another floor/section/house, within the building or outside.

If noise levels are disruptive, a resident should reasonably request that the noise level be decreased to the fellow community member. These requests are expected to be honored. Compliance is necessary to maintain an environment for academic success.
The Noise Policy will be amended to a 24-hour quiet period on the last day of classes through the final exam period. The specific dates will be posted within the residential areas, depending on the academic term. Residents are responsible for knowing the dates for the 24-hour quiet period.

Common areas include, but are not limited to, hallways, roofs, patios, walkways, and exterior walls and floors.

U.28. COMMUNITY RELATIONSHIP AND RESPONSIBILITY
By agreeing to become a part of the on-campus residence hall/apartments housing community, each resident is held to expectations outlined in the Housing and Residence Life Community Standards and the University of Florida Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

Residents who aid, encourage, abet, or conspire to protect another who committed a violation or encourage violations by others may be held accountable for and/or share the responsibility for those actions.

Individuals must not be in the presence of and must remove themselves from an ongoing policy violation. Residents are encouraged to report violations of the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code and/or the Community Standards or crime to Housing and Residence Life staff, University Police, and/or a University Official.
ROOM SAFETY CHECKS

Room Safety Checks are conducted during the first few weeks of most semesters. During this process, Housing and Residence Life staff members will check the condition of the room, check for Community Standards violations including but not limited to fire safety violations and assess the wellness of the resident(s). Staff members perform these inspections per specified procedures and are acting under the authority granted to them in conjunction with the terms and conditions of the Residence Hall Agreement that you and/or your parent(s)/guardian(s) signed.

Residents are always encouraged to check with staff members ahead of time regarding any questions about what is permitted/prohibited via the Community Standards. During room safety checks, residents will be asked to show the entirety of their room/apartment/individual bedroom to ensure it meets the Community Standards.

If any violations occur a Housing and Residence Hall staff member will inform the resident to unplug/remove items from the room as soon as possible and report the violation as necessary. If violations of Community Standards are discovered during room safety checks (or at other times), residents may be subject to the student conduct process. Residents are encouraged to talk with roommates regarding fire safety practices and related behavioral issues. Depending on the circumstances, all residents living in a room, suite, or apartment can be held accountable for violations that are discovered within the room/apartment.

In accordance with section 4.0 of the University of Florida Regulation 4.040 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code, it is prohibited to engage in acts of voyeurism, peeping, spying, or recording another in any location where a reasonable expectation of privacy exists. This policy is applicable in spaces including but not limited to all Housing and Residence Life properties.

To view the entire policy please visit regulations.ufl.edu.
RESIDENT INFORMATION

APARTMENT CLEANLINESS AND CONDITION INSPECTION

Housing and Residence Life strives to offer safe and clean apartments. Once an apartment is occupied, it is the resident’s responsibility to keep the unit clean. Each apartment will be inspected by staff semi-annually to evaluate the cleanliness and functionality of the apartment. The entire apartment will be inspected (ceilings, walls, floors, fixtures, appliances, etc.) If there are concerns noted during the inspection, the resident will be asked to clean the areas of concern by a specified date and time. If the concerns are not remedied, the resident will be held responsible for the cost to have the apartment cleaned and/or termination of the housing contract without refund.

PEST CONTROL

It is the responsibility of residents to immediately report any infestation (roaches, ants, bed bugs, etc.) in their apartment or apartment building.

Housing and Residence Life personnel visit every apartment four times a year to provide pest control services. Ants, bees, wasps, and other insects are all part of the natural environment of Graduate and Family Housing. When wasps’ nests, large anthills in playground areas, or other insect problems outside apartments are observed, complete a Maintenance Request form ("iService"). Please notify Housing and Residence Life staff of any pest control issues as they arise.

ODORS

Any overwhelming odor or aroma of such intensity that it becomes apparent to others will be addressed by Housing and Residence Life staff when complaints are received. Examples include but are not limited to cooking smells, perfume, air-freshening spray, or large amounts of dirty laundry or trash.

CLEANLINESS AND ABANDONED PROPERTY

With reasonable notice, Housing and Residence Life staff may dispose of abandoned property. Each resident is responsible for properly disposing of garbage and boxes. Residents are prohibited from creating messes in common spaces such as lounges, kitchens, and bathrooms.
UF HRL shall not be held responsible for student’s belongings left after a scheduled move out date or left more than 24 hours after an unscheduled move out. Such belongings will be deemed abandoned, and UF HRL reserves the right to take possession of and discard such belongings, change all applicable locks, and charge the Student for all necessary expenses to remove abandoned belongings and change or rekey locks.

LAUNDRY
Please remember to leave the doors to the laundry machines open. Do not leave personal items in machines for an extended period of time. Housing and Residence Life is not responsible for missing and/or stolen items.

HOUSING ASSIGNMENTS
UF does not discriminate in housing assignments and allows residents to choose housing based on their gender identity and expression. Requests from residents who require living options based on religious, cultural or personal needs are reviewed and addressed on a case-by-case basis by Housing and Residence Life Operations staff.

MEDICAL CANNABIS
Medical cannabis may not be possessed or used on University of Florida property. Please contact Housing and Residence Life for any questions regarding residents who have a medical cannabis license.
The Continuum is a privately owned and operated Provident Resources Group, Inc. for the University of Florida graduate students and professional staff which is managed by Cardinal Group Management/Capstone Management Partners. Cardinal/Capstone expect their residents to adhere to the following Community Standards, which have been developed to create a productive and safe living environment in the Continuum community. This document serves as the set of expectations for living in the Continuum residential areas including but not limited to rooms, suites, hallways, bathrooms, and private contracted spaces. In accepting their room assignment, a resident agrees to abide by the Continuum Community Standards, the University of Florida Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code, all University of Florida Regulations, and all state and federal laws located at regulations.ufl.edu.

The Community Standards are applicable to University of Florida enrolled students who are residents or guests of the Continuum. If the resident is a non-enrolled UF student; the Continuum rental agreement and lease policies are still applicable. Any violation of the rental agreement and lease will be presided over by the Cardinal Group Management/Capstone Management Partners. Any violations of the Community Standards will be presided over by UF Housing and Residence Life.

Any violation of these Community Standards or the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code may be subject to the student conduct process, where applicable, and termination of their rental agreement and lease without refund.

U.60. ALCOHOL AND DRUGS

A. A resident or guest is prohibited from possession of open containers or consuming alcoholic beverages outside their apartment or in public areas, such as by the pool or outside the Continuum buildings (in exception of The Continuum residence life or leasing programs). Alcohol is permitted by the grill area and inside the rec room only.

B. All other policies and regulations governing alcohol at the University of Florida, along with state, federal, and local laws, shall be followed and enforced. In accordance with section 4.0/4.040, University of Florida Regulation 4.40 Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code, includes, but is not limited to:

1. Consuming, possession, distribution or sale of alcoholic beverages under the age of 21, possession of common source containers, public intoxication, and excessive consumption of alcohol (e.g., drinking games);

2. Use, possession, manufacturing, distribution, or sale of a controlled substance and drug paraphernalia, in accordance with section (4)(e)1 and 2(4)(e)2 of the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code.

3. Knowingly inhaling or ingesting substances (e.g., nitrous oxide, glue, paint, etc.) that will alter a resident’s mental state;

4. Use or possession of a prescription drug if the prescription was not issued to the resident or the distribution or sale of a prescription drug to a person to whom the prescription was not originally issued;

NOTE: Please see the Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code for the complete listing of regulations regarding alcohol, drugs, and other illegal substances at regulations.ufl.edu.

U.61. APARTMENT AND COMMON AREAS

A. Each resident must complete proper care and cleanliness of their apartment and areas outside the entrances to their apartment and common areas. Common areas include but are not limited to patios, landings, and hallways and are governed by the Continuum. Residents are prohibited from placing personal property or decorations outside the apartment.

Residents failing to comply may be assessed monetary charges for contracted cleaning services and damage.

NOTE: Proper care and cleaning must be applied where applicable and defined as, but is not limited to: putting food away into a refrigerator or cabinet; removing hair from the shower or vanity sink drain; regularly wiping down surfaces, dusting, sweeping, vacuuming, and/or mopping; cleaning the kitchen area by wiping counters and appliances after preparation of meals; and emptying trash.

B. All residents using any common areas are responsible for returning the area to a condition approved by the Continuum Staff when the use of the particular area has concluded. The required tasks may include but are not limited to, moving furniture and emptying the trash.

C. All residents must properly dispose of trash, recyclables, boxes, etc. in the appropriate dumpster or designated recycling container. All trash must be disposed of immediately and should never be left outside of the apartments. If the dumpster is full, please take your trash to the next available dumpster. Items are not to be stacked outside of receptacles, including bags, furniture, and large items. Personal trash may not be left or disposed of in public areas. Residents who leave personal items and don’t dispose of recyclables properly may be assessed charges for cleaning, removal, and/or damage.

D. The flushing of items such as disposable wipes, t-shirts, towels, feminine products, and diapers is prohibited.

F. Entrances/exits must be free of furniture. Furniture may not block doors, and doors must be able to open 90 degrees without interference. There should be a clear path of egress within all residential spaces. Hanging or placing any items that may block the exit are also prohibited.

U.63. MOTORIZED VEHICLES

A. Parking and driving motorized vehicles on sidewalks, lawns, patios, and breezeways is prohibited.

B. Residents shall not perform vehicle maintenance or repairs on Continuum property, including but not limited to parking lots, garages, and adjacent areas.

C. Except for automobiles, no vehicles (including, without limitation, boats and boat trailers, campers, travel trailers, utility trailers, commercial vehicles, and motor homes) may be parked on the Continuum property.

U.64. BICYCLES

Bicycles may only be parked and locked to designated bike racks and within apartments. Bicycles must not be parked/secured in stairwells, handrails, fences, trees, or stairs.

Bicycles cannot contain any parts that use or contain fuel or other flammable liquids. Improperly parked/abandoned bicycles found attached to anything besides a designated bike rack will have its lock destroyed at the bike owner’s expense, and the bike will be removed.

U.65. COMMUNICABLE/CONTROLLED ILLNESSES

Residents must immediately report to Continuum Apartments any infections or contagious diseases occurring within the facility.

U.66. CONSTRUCTION

Painting, contact paper, all types of wallpaper, driving nails, and attaching mirrors are prohibited anywhere in the Continuum Apartments, including interior and exterior areas. Contact Continuum Apartments for any requests for alterations or changes to your apartment.

U.67. DESTROYING, DAMAGING OR TAMPERING WITH PROPERTY

Every student is expected to treat The Continuum property and the property of others with respect. Damage to The Continuum or property or property of any other person is prohibited. Residents may be held responsible for damages to The Continuum property.

A. Damages – The destruction of public or private property – is prohibited on The Continuum properties which include, but are not limited to, apartment buildings, commons, and inside and outside common spaces. Vandalism includes, but is not limited to, the destruction or unwarranted alteration of bulletin boards and hall decorations.

B. Pranks, practical jokes, and/or mischievous acts which includes but is not limited to activities that may or may not damage property, cause potential injury to self or others, violate noise policy, or inconvenience other residents, guests, and staff are prohibited on The Continuum properties which include, but are not limited to, apartment buildings, commons, and inside and outside common spaces.

C. Modifying the living space configuration or utilities (temporarily or permanently), including but not limited to re-routing cable, re-wiring lights, and dismantling the thermostat is prohibited.

U.68. WINDOWS AND WINDOW SCREENS, OBJECTS FROM WINDOWS, AND RESTRICTED AREAS

A. Tampering with, opening, or removing window screens is prohibited. Residents will be held responsible for damages if Continuum Apartments must replace the screens.

B. Throwing, pouring, or dropping anything from and/or at windows, balconies, ledges, or landings is strictly prohibited.

C. Residents and guests are prohibited from being on the roof, ledge, or balcony areas, and from placing objects on these areas. Objects found on the roof, ledge or balcony will be removed.

D. Residents are prohibited to place newspaper, foil, or other material to cover windows. Solicitations and advertisements/signage are prohibited from being placed in windows.

E. Residents and guests are prohibited from climbing through windows. Climbing on any exterior building wall or similar structure is prohibited.

F. Curtains, drapes, or tapestries hung across hallways in apartment complexes, windows, or as partitions are prohibited.

U.69. FAILURE TO COMPLY

A. Residents and their guests must present proper identification when requested to do so by identified Continuum and/or Housing and Residence Life staff.

B. Students are required to schedule and/or attend appointments with staff members when asked to do so in conjunction with the staff member’s duties.

C. Residents must abide by the terms and conditions outlined in the Continuum Apartments contract and its addendums.

U.70. FIRE SAFETY

A. EVACUATION Residents must evacuate immediately when an alarm sounds, and/or emergency flashing lights have been activated, and/or when instructed to do so by Housing and Residence Life/Continuum Apartments staff or emergency personnel. Re-entry into a building before receiving confirmation from Housing and Residence Life/Continuum Apartments staff, police officers, the fire department, or other emergency personnel is prohibited. Re-entry is prohibited while the alarm is sounding.

B. COOKING Residents and guests must not leave food items unattended while cooking with appliances at anytime. Residents and guests are responsible for the proper use of approved cooking appliances and attention to food items while using the appliances. Residents will be held responsible for any damages that may occur.

C. STOVETOP/BACKSPLASH & RANGEHOODS must be free of flammable items such as cardboard, cloth, plastic wrap, aluminum foil, and newspapers. Burner trays range hoods, counter tops and walls adjacent to the range are prohibited from being covered with any material.

D. HEATERS Personal heaters, including but not limited to open coil space heaters, radiant heaters, or kerosene heaters are prohibited.

E. BARBECUE GRILLS Grills of any kind inside or outside of the apartment unit are prohibited. Grills are provided in designated areas only by the Continuum.

U.74. Locks and Keys
A. Tampering with or damaging lock mechanisms, access cards/fobs and access card readers is prohibited. Additional locks are prohibited from being added to doors or other Continuum property or equipment.

B. Residents are required to immediately report any lost or stolen keys.

U.75. Security
A. Keys are only issued to residents listed on the Continuum Apartments contract.

B. Residents are prohibited from borrowing/duplicating keys, fobs, or access cards from each other or loaning keys, fobs, or access cards to anyone for any period of time. Residents are also expected to keep the keys and fobs/access cards issued to them in a safe area and/or under their control so as not to adversely affect the security of their room and community.

C. Residents cannot prohibit authorized Continuum Apartments/Housing and Residence Life staff to enter, without notice, any part of the dwelling unit during reasonable hours for the purpose of making evaluations, improvements, or repairs to any part of such dwelling unit; or when authorized personnel have reasonable belief that a violation of a University regulation, local ordinance, state or federal statute is in progress; and/or for other emergency purposes.

NOTE: “authorized Continuum and Housing and Residence Life staff” include but are not limited to full-time professional staff such as Area Coordinators, Residence Directors, Facilities, and Maintenance.

U.76. Noise
Residents are expected to adhere to the following Quiet Hours:
- Sunday-Thursday: 10 p.m. – 8 a.m.
- Friday-Saturday: 11:59 p.m. – 10 a.m.

Residents are prohibited from activities in their apartment and common areas that may cause disturbances which could cause annoyance or discomfort to other residents in any manner. This includes but is not limited to prohibition of playing band instruments at any time, cleaning the apartment past quiet hours, running loud appliances, moving furniture, etc.

U.77. Occupant Responsibilities
